

NEW VENUE! The Lodges at Stone Lake, Cassopolis, MI (just 90 minutes away)

We will be enjoying two adjacent lodge properties (both fully air-conditioned) on a quiet country lane, with a total of 18 bedrooms and 18 bathrooms. The brand-new Blue Spruce Lodge is fully paneled in knotty pine for a warm and inviting "lodge" feeling. Across the street, the Woodlands Lodge, a converted 1934 Craftsman-style farmhouse, backs onto 50 acres of private woods with trails for exploring.

Gathering spaces for our retreat activities range from cozy, intimate seating nooks to airy great rooms with vaulted ceilings. Enjoy lake views from the firepit areas, a screened gazebo, or the Blue Spruce Lodge's 101-foot covered deck directly overlooking the private sandy beach.

Retreat Amenities

- Travel roundtrip in comfort on a restroom-equipped coach bus

Activities: As Much or Little As You Want

Our time is spent leisurely enjoying the company of friends, playing mah jongg and canasta, Lunch & Learn lectures and group discussions, beach swimming or sunning, a daily wine/cocktail hour, evening movies on the big screen in the Blue Spruce Lodge, and plenty of free time for reading and relaxing. Tip: Bring your mah jongg set.

Along with our new venue, we are planning many exciting new offerings* this year! • Lunch outing in South Bend • Kayaking • Hiking • Biking • Sunset pontoon boat cruise on Stone Lake • Winery/distillery tours in southwest Michigan's renowned wine country • Wellness programs

Subject to change. Evening options will also include visiting the Four Winds Casino in nearby Dowagiac for fun and entertainment.*

Feed Your Mind, Body, and Soul

Scholar-In-Residence Rosalie Levinson, who has taught Constitutional Law at Valparaiso University for over 40 years, presents stimulating daily discussions. Additional group discussions will be led by Don Levinson, Susan Tepperman, and Rabbi Eliezer Zalmanov.
